Compliance Basics

A Borrower's Right to Privacy in a Mortgage Transaction

30 Minutes

Privacy rights are a significant concern for mortgage professionals who are involved in the solicitation, origination, processing, closing and servicing of mortgage loans. Multiple laws protect the privacy of borrowers, and violation of these laws can result in serious liability. The following course reviews the privacy laws that protect borrowers from the time they receive a solicitation for a mortgage loan until their loans are repaid. It also discusses the actions that are necessary to maintain compliance with privacy laws, which are an ongoing concern for mortgage professionals.

AML/BSA - Anti-Money Laundering/Bank Secrecy Act - E3

45 Minutes

This course explains the money laundering process and educates you about ways to prevent money laundering at your financial institution. The Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) helps the United States government combat money laundering and other illegal financial activity. Within the framework of the BSA, this course also discusses the key elements of an anti-money laundering (AML) compliance program, which is required for all financial institutions.

Currency Transaction Reports (CTRs)-E3

30 Minutes

The Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) and related laws exist primarily to prevent money laundering and other illegal financial activity. To comply with the BSA, financial institution employees must be able to recognize when cash transactions trigger a Currency Transaction Report. This course defines large currency transactions, discusses aggregation rules and expands on the CTR exemption process.

Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA)

60 Minutes

The Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) was enacted in 1970 to improve accuracy, impartiality, privacy, and fairness in credit reporting. This course explores FCRA and its regulatory authority and applicability. Students will learn the significance of its provisions, the rights of consumers to protect themselves and their information and compliance procedures and concerns under the law.

Fair Lending Laws Overview

30 Minutes

This course provides participants with an overview of the history and goals of fair lending laws. This includes information about the current requirements of fair lending laws, legislative and regulatory updates, a review of amendments made by the Dodd-Frank Act to fair lending laws and more. This course has been revised and completely updated to incorporate CFPB rule changes, and provides students with the most up-to-date information available regarding fair lending laws in the mortgage marketplace.

Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA)

20 Minutes

Congress enacted the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA) in 1975 to discourage creditors from denying loans to qualified applicants because of personal characteristics like race and sex, and to encourage lending institutions to provide loans to consumers in their communities. HMDA requires covered institutions to submit reports about their mortgage lending activities to help citizens and public officials determine whether community housing needs are being met. This course will review HMDA and its provisions, the legal and ethical importance of its reporting and disclosure requirements, as well as updated reporting requirements for covered entities.

Homeowners Protection Act (HPA)

15 Minutes

Congress passed the Homeowners Protection Act (HPA) in 1998 to facilitate the cancellation of private mortgage insurance (PMI). This course provides a review of the provisions of the Homeowners Protection Act, including definitions of key terms, the scope and coverage of the law, disclosure requirements, guidelines for compliance and more.

Suspicious Activity Reporting (SAR)-E3

30 Minutes

The Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) and its related laws exist primarily to prevent money laundering and other illegal financial activity. To comply with the BSA, all financial institution employees must be able to detect and report suspicious activity. This course defines and identifies several types of suspicious activity and discusses your reporting responsibilities.

Suspicious Activity Reports - Red Flags for Lenders-E3

15 Minutes

The Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council's (FFIEC's) BSA/AML Examination Procedures provide examples of potentially suspicious activities, or "red flags," for both money laundering and terrorist financing. Red flags may help financial institutions recognize possible money laundering and terrorist-financing schemes. This course will introduce you to various examples of red flags relevant to your role at your financial institution.

The Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA)

30 Minutes

In 1974, Congress enacted the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA) to eliminate discriminatory treatment of credit applicants. ECOA and its regulations, known as Regulation B, are intended to promote the availability of credit to all creditworthy applicants regardless of gender, race, color, religion, national origin, marital status, age, or the fact that the applicant receives income from a public assistance program or has exercised his/her rights under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. This course provides a review of ECOA's requirements, including protected classes, disclosure requirements, special purpose credit programs and more.

The Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA)

30 Minutes

This course will review the requirements of the federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA). With a focus on preventing the charging of unearned fees and illegal exchange of kickbacks and things of value, RESPA is a vital mortgage lending law, and compliance is essential to successful business. Course participants will review the purpose and goals of RESPA, its requirements and prohibitions and penalties for violations.

Truth-in-Lending Act (TILA)

60 Minutes

In this course, participants will review the purpose of the Truth-in-Lending Act, learn the loans and creditors that it regulates, explore required disclosures and more. Students will review rescission rights, advertising requirements and prohibitions, and mortgage rules covered by the law.

Unfair, Deceptive, or Abusive Acts or Practices for the Financial Institution

60 Minutes

Unfair, deceptive, or abusive acts and practices can cause significant financial injury to consumers, erode consumer confidence and undermine the financial marketplace. This course describes how financial products or services, such as deposit products or lending activities, may bring risks of harm to consumers and how you can help mitigate the likelihood of potential harm to the consumer and manage risk associated with financial products and services. You will also be able to define the credit prohibitions and cosigner liabilities.

Unplugged: Anti-Money Laundering (AML)

15 Minutes

This course explains the money laundering process and educates you about ways to prevent money laundering at your financial institution.

Unplugged: BSA/AML Overview

10 Minutes

The Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) helps the U.S. government combat money laundering and other illegal financial activity. This course provides an overview of the BSA and discusses the identity verification, recordkeeping and reporting requirements of the BSA.

Unplugged: BSA/AML Program

10 Minutes

This course explains the importance of an effective BSA/AML program for your institution and provides detail surrounding the key pillars critical to an effective and compliant program.

Unplugged: Equal Credit Opportunity Act

15 Minutes

The Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA) and Regulation B have requirements for all loan application, processing, evaluation and notification processes. These regulations also have recordkeeping and reporting requirements. This course provides an overview of ECOA and Regulation B requirements and discusses what you must do to maintain compliance.

Unplugged: Fair Lending Overview

15 Minutes

This course is intended to provide you with an understanding of the basic concepts regarding fair lending. The course describes the fair lending laws and discusses the penalties of breaking these laws.

Unplugged: Home Mortgage Disclosure Act

15 Minutes

This course is intended to provide you with an understanding of the basic concepts of the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA). The course describes the primary requirements of HMDA and discusses the penalties for violations.

Ability to Repay (ATR) and Qualified Mortgage (QM) Rules

60 Minutes

This course will provide students with the essential information necessary to understand the Ability to Repay and Qualified Mortgage Rules. This course will help participants understand the importance of the Rules and their effect on the mortgage landscape, and will highlight compliance concerns that may arise. This includes a review of borrower repayment standards, qualification requirements for loan products and more.

Fair Debt Collection Practices Act

60 Minutes

The provisions of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA) are increasingly relevant due to the troubled economic times that have followed the collapse of the mortgage market. When defaults on home loans occur and lenders, servicers, or debt collectors seek to recover missed payments, their debt collection practices may be subject to the FDCPA. Furthermore, a growing number of consumers have turned to the FDCPA to find relief from the aggressive or abusive collection actions of those who hold their mortgage debt. This course will review the provisions of the FDCPA, including those that define and identify debt collectors, as well as prohibited conduct, required procedures and the consequences of failure to comply.

Fair Housing Act (FHA)

30 Minutes

The Fair Housing Act prohibits making discriminatory lending decisions based on factors such as religion, race, color, national origin, sex, familial status or handicap. This course will explore protected classes under the law, an in-depth look at prohibitions and procedures for investigating and resolving violations.

Flood Disaster Protection Act

15 Minutes

Considerations for flood protection must be made for certain financial transactions. In this course, students will review the Flood Disaster Protection Act to learn how it applies to the operations of mortgage professionals. Students will explore the origins of the FDPA, its most essential provisions and the impact of recent legislation on the Act itself and on the industry in affected areas.

Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act (HOEPA)

30 Minutes

This course provides a review of the Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act (HOEPA) and its corresponding regulations. Participants will review the definition of a high-cost mortgage loan, including the thresholds that help identify loans covered by HOEPA. This course will examine the portions of HOEPA dealing with requirements, including those related to homeownership counseling and disclosures, as well as prohibited terms and practices under the law. Finally, participants will explore higher-priced mortgage loan standards, specifically those related to the establishment of an escrow account and appraisal requirements.

Military Lending Act

30 Minutes

This course provides general knowledge of the Military Lending Act and its requirements for financial institutions. Elements of coverage, general requirements, and other key aspects are considered.

Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC)-E3

30 Minutes

This course explains the purpose and mission of the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). The course will provide an overview of the coverage and scope of the sanctions and regulations administered by the OFAC. The sanctions and regulations require financial institutions, such as yours, to block or restrict transactions involving individuals, entities, or governments that are known or suspected of financial criminal activity. You will be an important participant in your financial institution's efforts to help ensure that terrorists, drug cartels, criminal enterprises, and foreign governments subject to U.S. economic sanctions are not using the U.S. financial system to circumvent U.S. economic sanctions, launder money and further their illegal activities. The course will also describe the essential elements of a sound OFAC compliance program.

Review of Electronic Fund Transfer Act

30 Minutes

The Electronic Fund Transfer Act (EFTA) was enacted in 1978 to protect individual consumers engaging in electronic fund transfers (EFTs). The primary purpose of the EFTA is to provide a basic framework establishing the rights, liabilities, and responsibilities of participants in electronic fund transfer systems. This course explores the various provisions of the EFTA, including disclosures required under the law, provisions surrounding consumer liability and error resolution, requirements related to receipts and periodic statements, overdraft protection, and penalties for violations of the EFTA.

Right to Financial Privacy Act (RFPA)

30 Minutes

The Right to Financial Privacy Act (RFPA), enacted in 1978, regulates how and when the federal government can access a customer's records from a financial institution. This ensures that customers' financial activities have a reasonable amount of privacy from federal government scrutiny.

Safeguarding Information: The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act

30 Minutes

This course explores various aspects of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLB Act). It discusses the purpose of the GLB Act, the protections offered under its provisions, details of the various privacy and opt-out notices it requires, and the differences in these requirements for consumers and customers. The course also discusses practices prohibited and limited by the Act, as well as penalties for violations.

Servicemembers Civil Relief Act

60 Minutes

This course provides an overview of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA) and its applicability to financial institutions. The provisions of the SCRA discussed in this course include protections against default judgments, stays of civil proceedings, rent and mortgages, installment contracts, interest rate protections, and fines and penalties for violations.

Telemarketing Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act

60 Minutes

Privacy rights are a significant concern for mortgage professionals who are involved in the solicitation of mortgage loans. The Telemarketing Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act and the Telemarketing Sales Rule protect the privacy of borrowers and violation of these rules can result in serious liability. Additionally, the Mortgage Assistance Relief Services Rule includes provisions related to solicitations of consumers, specifically as they relate to offering services for preventing foreclosure. This course reviews the privacy laws that protect borrowers when they receive a solicitation for a mortgage loan or other related services.

The SAFE Act E3

30 Minutes

This course covers the regulations governing financial institutions under the SAFE Act, specifically the requirements of mortgage loan originators (MLOs) to register with a nationwide registry annually.

USA PATRIOT Act

10 Minutes

Title III of the USA PATRIOT Act impacts mortgage lending transactions, requiring verification of customer identities and reporting of suspicious financial activities. The Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) has primary responsibility for investigating, identifying, and reporting information on money laundering and other financial crimes. This course will briefly review of the USA PATRIOT Act and its requirements apply to mortgage professionals.

Unplugged: Phishing

15 Minutes

This course provides an overview of phishing tactics used by criminals to obtain protected information from financial institutions. It explains common phishing attempts as well as how to spot and avoid them to protect yourself and your institution.

Unplugged: Fair Housing Act

15 Minutes

This course is intended to provide you with an understanding of the Fair Housing Act (FHA). The course describes the requirements of the FHA.

Unplugged: Identity Theft Program

15 Minutes

This course provides a fresh overview of the crime and prevention of identity theft. This course discusses the concept, perpetrators and victims of identity theft. The Fair Credit Reporting Act and Sections 114 and 315 of the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACT Act) establish the requirements for an Identity Theft Prevention Program. The key elements of this program are presented in this course.

Unplugged: Identity Theft Red Flags

15 Minutes

This course provides a fresh overview of the crime and prevention of identity theft. It discusses the concept of identity theft, its perpetrators and its victims. The Fair Credit Reporting Act and Sections 114 and 315 of the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACT Act) establish the requirements for an Identity Theft Prevention Program. This course covers prevention techniques and identification of red flags of identity theft.

Unplugged: Know Your Customer

20 Minutes

This course reviews the basic requirements of a Know Your Customer (KYC). This includes the Customer Identification Program (CIP), Customer Due Diligence (CDD) procedures and Enhanced Due Diligence (EDD) procedures as prescribed by the USA PATRIOT Act. It explains the relationship between KYC and the institution's Anti-money Laundering (AML) program. In addition, it provides guidance on how to verify the identity of customers, and perform necessary due diligence.

Unplugged: Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC)

15 Minutes

All U.S. individuals and businesses are required to comply with regulations sanctioned by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). Among other things, these regulations block or restrict financial institutions from transactions with foreign persons, countries, or entities that are known or suspected to have ties to terrorist activity or drug trafficking.

Unplugged: Privacy

15 Minutes

This course presents the key concepts, terms and requirements of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley (GLB) Privacy Rule as it applies to your financial institution and your job function. When an institution chooses to share nonpublic personal financial information with a nonaffiliated third party, a customer can opt out or forbid the sharing of his or her information.

Unplugged: Social Engineering

15 Minutes

This course introduces social engineering as it relates to information security. There are several techniques of social engineering that may be employed against staff members of a financial institution in an attempt to gain access to customer information, company proprietary information or other protected information.

Job Knowledge

Adjustable-Rate Mortgages

30 Minutes

This course will focus on essential information about adjustable-rate mortgages, their role in the current mortgage marketplace and requirements for suitability and disclosures. Course participants will also learn about available ARM products, adjustments and rate caps and sample calculations.

Advanced Financial Math

120 Minutes

This course reviews the math needed to solve most basic financial problems. It includes mathematical equations and provides examples.

Analyzing Personal Financial Statements

60 Minutes

It is important to review personal financial statements (PFSs) to gauge the creditworthiness of individual borrowers in both consumer and private financial institution situations. Reviewing personal financial statements is also important to gauge the financial strength of individuals as principals and guarantors of closely held businesses, both "small" and "middle market." Lenders are able to use these forms as a window to the unique, interwoven relationship between a principal's business and the principal/guarantor; in fact, failure of one usually leads to the failure of the other.

Appraisals

30 Minutes

In this course, participants will learn the basics of the property appraisal process. This includes a review of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP), which govern appraiser conduct and the entities and regulations that apply to appraisal activities. This course will also briefly discuss appraisal requirements, including standards for providing appraisal reports and related disclosures. Finally, students will learn about the approaches that professional appraisers use when developing a valuation and explore the appraisal process step by step.

Beginning Financial Math

90 Minutes

This course discusses percentages, interest rates and the essential equations used to make calculations pertaining to loans.

Consumer Credit Products

90 Minutes

This course covers key features and benefits of installment loans, home equity loans and lines of credit, and credit cards. It also reviews credit concepts, such as closed-end (one-time borrowing that is repaid in full) and open-end (used repeatedly up to the credit limit after being paid back). Finally, this course covers various value-added products and services that are available with consumer credit products. Please note: This course does not cover business loans or traditional first mortgage loans.

Escrow Accounts and Disclosures

30 Minutes

This course explains what escrow accounts are and how they are used. It also discusses escrow analysis, escrow statements, and required disclosures.

FHA Factor in Mortgage Lending

30 Minutes

In this course, participants will review the role of the Federal Housing Administration and the purpose of FHA loans. Students will explore FHA programs and their unique features, discuss a handful of loan types and the qualifying factors involved in origination and review the origination and processing steps for FHA reverse mortgages and refinances.

Fast Track to Success: A Primer for New Mortgage Loan Originators

360 Minutes

There are many facets to the role of a mortgage loan originator; consumers often depend on loan originators to guide them through their transaction. Successful mortgage loan originators have a firm grasp of the many intricacies of their job, and know the importance of remaining well-informed in order to keep up in this fast-paced industry. This course will provide new mortgage loan originators with insight into the industry, giving them an opportunity to become familiar with the unique responsibilities and characteristics of the job. Students will also review some basics of the industry itself, to ensure that they are well-equipped with the knowledge necessary to start out on the right foot and find the fast track to success as a mortgage loan originator.

Key Components of Credit Reports

30 Minutes

This course will help mortgage loan originators become conversant in and knowledgeable of all aspects of the credit report, its contents and its role in the loan decision process. It is important to be familiar with the components of the credit report, how the report is compiled and what the score will ultimately mean for a potential borrower. By examining the specifics of the credit report, one can better help the potential borrower understand the process and make a credit decision that is right for them.

Managing OREO

20 Minutes

Other real estate owned (OREO) is a class of property that is owned by a lender after a foreclosure sale has not been successful. When the lender repossesses the property, the financial statement will classify the property as "other real estate owned" since owning the property was not in the lending institution's original intent; it expected the loan to be repaid in full with interest. This course will provide an overview of OREO terms and concepts, associated risks, and guidelines for managing an OREO situation.

Mortgage Loan Cycle

50 Minutes

In the field of mortgage lending, the term "loan cycle" refers to the process of obtaining and paying off a home loan. This course concentrates on the basic concepts and practices related to the loan cycle, and will provide an overview of the process from start to finish. Each of the steps of the loan cycle and the legal requirements related to each step will be reviewed.

Mortgage Loan Processing 101

15 Minutes

Mortgage Loan Processing 101 provides an exciting crash course in the basic principles of loan processing. Participants will learn the responsibilities of a loan processor, important elements of the loan application process, the fundamentals of credit scoring, and more. Students will have the opportunity to review information relating to automated loan origination and underwriting, credit reports, appraisals and important disclosures required by law.

Mortgage Math

30 Minutes

Successful loan originators need to have a solid grasp of the concepts and calculations required in order to present clear solutions for their customers. It is crucial for mortgage professionals to understand the basic concepts behind common loan origination calculations; advanced number concepts allow the loan originator to look more deeply into the benefits of a transaction for the borrower. In this course, students will explore the fundamental financial calculations of loan origination and apply their knowledge to test their skills.

Mortgage Profession

30 Minutes

Mortgage origination is an exciting career; few other professions allow exposure to a number of different industries and interesting challenges. With a foot in both the real estate market and the financial industry, mortgage professionals participate in one of the most important financial decisions that many consumers make over the course of their lives. Good communication skills and the ability to appropriately advise borrowers are essential to a successful loan origination. An understanding of how the industry operates and knowledge of the factors critical to originating good loans are also important components. This course examines all of these and more, reviewing the roles of various "players" in the industry, important considerations in the borrower qualification process and the essentials of the loan cycle. Students will learn how all of these elements fit together to ensure a smooth, safe mortgage loan origination process.

Originating VA Loans

30 Minutes

Due to the unique nature of VA loans and their underwriting standards and the growing popularity of these loans in the mortgage market, it is important to understand how they function and just who may be eligible for this type of financing. This course will help mortgage professionals to understand general concepts about VA lending, including current requirements, eligibility standards, available loan types and more.

Private Mortgage Insurance

90 Minutes

This course focuses on the requirements for termination of private mortgage insurance (PMI) in accordance with the Homeowners Protection Act of 1998.

Reverse Mortgages

30 Minutes

As more Americans begin to shift into the later stages of life, many consumers seek additional options to meet continuing financial demands. One mortgage product that has experienced a surge in popularity is the reverse mortgage. Reverse mortgage loans are available only to people who meet a certain age threshold and other requirements; while they offer a way for seniors to meet the costs of living later in life, it is important for mortgage professionals and borrowers alike to understand both the benefits and the risks of reverse mortgage products. This course will review reverse mortgage loans, including the types of products available, standards for borrower eligibility, government-insured options and more.

Rural Development and the Single Family Housing Guaranteed Loan Program

30 Minutes

USDA's Single Family Housing Programs provide homeownership opportunities to low- and moderate-income Americans living in rural areas. This course explores requirements for the Single Family Rural Housing Guaranteed Loan Program (SFHGLP), including eligibility for lenders, borrowers, and properties. Students will also learn about permitted and prohibited use of loan funds, the guarantee process and how guaranteed loans are serviced.

Second-lien Real Estate Mortgage Loans

60 Minutes

This course discusses loans secured by real estate and introduces the laws and regulations that apply to second lien mortgage loans secured by one-to four-family dwellings.

Securitization and the Secondary Mortgage Market

30 Minutes

Securitization is the process by which investors buy groups of loans in the secondary mortgage market. This gives lenders a source of funds to continue making new mortgage loans available, supporting a healthy housing market. This course will review basic concepts related to securitization, explore its role in the mortgage industry and discuss who is typically involved in the process.

Subprime and Predatory Lending

60 Minutes

This course provides basic knowledge about the subprime market and the characteristics of predatory lending. It begins by explaining the differences between acceptable loans to the subprime borrower and predatory loans, then gives a review of the subprime market. Predatory loan types are described in detail, as is the risk of such loans to your customers and your institution. Current regulatory oversight is reviewed, including guidance from regulators. The steps regulators are taking to address subprime and predatory lending are discussed, as well as current congressional involvement.

Title Insurance

15 Minutes

This course concentrates on one of the basic concepts related to the mortgage loan cycle: title insurance. This course will provide students with an overview of reasons for title insurance, types of title insurance and key elements of title. It also discusses the steps in the title process and some important details of the closing and post-closing process.

Underwriting

10 Minutes

Underwriting is the process of evaluating a loan applicant's financial information and facts about the real estate used to secure a loan to determine whether a potential loan is an acceptable risk for a lender. This course will examine underwriting standards and guidelines, help students understand the various responsibilities of the underwriter, review how to properly complete and organize a file for submission to the underwriter and explore common underwriting pitfalls.

General Topics

Anti-Terrorism-E3

20 Minutes

Several federal laws have been passed to strengthen homeland security and help detect and deter terrorist activity in the financial sector. This course will discuss the U.S. government's efforts to combat terrorism and related illegal activities with the help of financial institutions like yours. The course will provide an overview of the U.S. anti-terrorism laws and the international anti-terrorism efforts. You will learn about common terrorist financing methods and how you can be a part of the effort to detect and deter that activity.

Beneficial Ownership

30 Minutes

This course explains the requirements of the final rule on beneficial ownership as contained in the Customer Due Diligence (CDD) Rule issued by FinCEN, which is in effect for covered institutions. The transparency required by the beneficial ownership rule and the information that is required from customers who were not required to provide such information in the past has a far-reaching impact. The implementation of all the varied aspects of this rule affected multiple departments and lines of business. These regulatory requirements involve Customer Identification Programs, OFAC procedures, CIP/CDD risk assessments and BSA/AML policies.

CFPB Examinations: Understanding Procedures, Ensuring Compliance

30 Minutes

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) has the authority to conduct examinations of a number of entities participating in the financial industry, including mortgage professionals. In its comprehensive Supervision and Examination Manual, the CFPB presents nearly 1,000 pages of examination procedures - a daunting prospect for a mortgage professional attempting to learn about the process. This course highlights the portion of the Manual dedicated specifically to examinations of mortgage professionals, breaking down those procedures step by step. From the start of the examination process to the final outcome, this course helps students to understand the goals of a CFPB examination, each step involved, and potential results. This course allows mortgage originators to gain a clearer understanding of what they may expect if they face an examination and highlights the importance of maintaining day-to-day compliance.

CISA - Customer Information Security Awareness

120 Minutes

This course provides an overview of information security guidelines that all financial institution employees must know. The course discusses several different types of security issues and explains the specific requirements for each issue, as well as general guidelines you must follow to ensure the security of your customers' private information.

Collection Practices and Loan Workouts

60 Minutes

This course provides an overview of responsibilities of the collection department, including the use of letter and phone collection techniques. This course also explains repossession, foreclosures, loan workouts, and bankruptcy.

Customer Due Diligence and Enhanced Due Diligence (CDD/EDD)

30 Minutes

Customer due diligence (CDD) is a critical part of your institution's Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) and anti-money laundering (AML) policies. This course discusses the purpose of CDD guidelines and the basic way CDD can help you to know your customer, assess risk and decide when enhanced due diligence (EDD) may be necessary. Employees must know how and when to apply appropriate CDD and EDD procedures. This course explains the basics of CDD and EDD and provides opportunities to practice what you have learned in two scenario activities.
