Compliance training from OnCourse Learning helps you get ahead and stay ahead, providing the industry's most respected learning and development. Engaging, robust and in the formats you need – including new Compliance Training E3 courses!

What is an E3 Course?

Many of our traditional compliance training courses are now available in new E3 versions which include animation, video, infographics, and a variety of role-based course scenarios, designed to promote an effective, efficient, and engaging learning experience by presenting information in a concise, easily digestible, and relevant format for students.

Compliance training E3 courses push students beyond the basics of “knowing” into training them “how to” recognize and respond to risks.

Real-life Scenarios leveraged to present and test practical application of the lesson objectives.

Courses Designed to Change Behavior;
going beyond knowing course objectives to confidently applying them on the job.

Interactive Presentation of content that drives positive engagement and results in the increase in retention.

Courseware Design

Precise courseware design allows for reinforcement and remediation.

These courses include an assessment to gauge and report on the students' knowledge. Pre-assessment options also allow students to test-out.
